

Easter

Bells Will Call Faithful To Worship Easter Morning

Holy Week, the most solemn period on the Christian calendar, that was ushered in last Sunday with the procession of the palms, is now drawing to a close.

Today, Maundy or Holy Thursday, commemorating the Last Supper when Jesus and his disciples ate together in that upper room in Jerusalem, and his seizure in the Garden of Gethsemane where he had gone to pray.

Tomorrow, Good Friday, the day of the Crucifixion, finds churches bleak, the altars stripped and barren.

There will be suppers tonight in many churches and communion administered. In many churches members of the congregation will keep vigil tonight. In the garden while Jesus prayed and suffered the disciples who had accompanied him there, slept.

Tomorrow afternoon and evening special Good Friday services will be held in area churches. Good Friday was a sombre day, a black day for the followers of Jesus. For many it was the end of the road. Their hopes for a kingdom, for a future seemed to ebb and flow with the flicker of life in the suffering frame of the Christ as He hung from the cross and when that flicker died at last so did their hopes.

Removed from the cross by some of his braver followers the body of Jesus was laid in a tomb. A vast stone was rolled before the door and a guard stationed to make certain that the body was not spirited away by his people who might then claim He had risen from the dead.

Saturday, Holy Saturday, marks the end of lent and the end of mourning. In some churches food will be blessed on Saturday and there will be the lighting of new fires and the vigil until midnight, when Easter arrives.

That first Easter must have been a joyous one. When the two Marys and some of the disciples found the stone rolled away and the tomb empty they knew that He had triumphed over death and so would those who followed His Way. The hopes that had died when He died on the cross were alive again and would ever live.

Easter is the time of joy and Sunday will see worshippers of the area, in common with Christians throughout the world, gathering in their churches to give thanks and renew their faith.

Miss Rowe was one of three soloists on the concert tour. She is a senior at Albion. A graduate of Lincoln-Way high school, she was a soloist there too in the choral program conducted by Tom Olson.

On the same night a 13-piece instrumental group from the college gave a concert at Jackson, Mich.

Vo-Ag At Lincoln-Way Wins Commendation

The Vocational Agricultural Department of Lincoln-Way high school is highly commended by Allan L. Utech, supervisor of agricultural education in the office of state superintendent of public instruction.

Utech, accompanied by Ralph Guthrie, state director of vocational agriculture education, made a recent visit to Lincoln-Way for the express purpose of viewing the operations of the Vo-Ag Dept., which is headed by Robert Van Rheeden, of Frankfort.

Utech reported the findings in a letter to Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, that reads as follows: "Mr. Guthrie and I want to express our appreciation for the opportunity to visit with you and tour your fine building and school. I was especially pleased for him to see what I consider to be an outstanding program in agricultural education. Our visit was brief but productive.

"There are numerous features of your vocational agriculture program that work toward making it outstanding. One hesitates to point to any particular one for fear of neglecting to mention some of equal importance. The quality of the teacher and his teaching are of great importance. The teacher must be the 'spark plug' of a successful program. The excellent teacher-student relationship is of equal value. Having an understanding cooperative administration is also an asset in any school program.

"The vocational agriculture enrollment is more encouraging each year. Changes in Mr. Van Rheeden's class schedules have made it possible to broaden course offerings. His teaching load is now classed as being 100% in vocational agriculture rather than 6/7 in last year's program.

"Your facilities and equipment in the classroom, shop, laboratory and storage areas are exceedingly well organized and orderly. The files and records are accurately and systematically arranged. The high standards are further exhibited in the top quality workmanship in shop projects.

"New programs in vocational agriculture will help to broaden the opportunities in agricultural education. Possible student enrollments will be increased.

This could mean a need for an additional teacher sometime in the near future. Training for non-farm agricultural occupations in addition to the present preparation for farming will provide challenges as well as opportunities. Much emphasis in these new programs will be placed on post-high school education.

"Mr. Van Rheeden is well pleased with the progress being made with his young farmer class. He would like to expand the total adult program. One large area of possible expansion on both the high school and adult levels could be in farm machinery maintenance, repair and adjustment.

"The extended number of meetings of the young farmer class will fully meet the requirements of the AA time plan. I am pleased to report that reimbursement for salaries paid teachers of adult classes is 60% of a maximum figure of $5 per class hour.

"The Lincoln-Way FFA continues to perform in a manner to receive a 'superior' rating. We certainly appreciate the cooperation we have received from your teacher and FFA in carrying on FFA activities on the section, district and state levels. . ."

Site Committee Submits Two Proposals To L-W Board

At a recent meeting of the Lincoln-Way high school board the Citizens Site Committee submitted its recommendations and findings for the selection of an additional site for a new high school. This report represented final action as an active committee. The members will, however, be retained by the board of education as advisors for future work in providing educational facilities for Lincoln-Way students.

The committee explored two alternatives. One was the possibility of expanding the present central site and the other was the feasibility of securing a second site in another area of the Lincoln-Way district. The seven specific recommendations are as follows:

1. It appears as tho it is feasible to locate a second school close to the source of population. All data indicates that the Frankfort township will grow at a more rapid rate than New Lenox or Manhattan townships. For this reason the site committee explored site locations in the northeastern portion of the district. The site committee, however, does not want to abandon the idea of the expansion of the central site and, therefore, included it as a proposal. Alternative Proposal #2 which involves the acquisition of a new site may be the most practical in view of the present commitment to size and the limitation of core facilities of the present building.

2. In the event the board of education accepts Alternative Proposal #2, it is recommended that the excess acreage bordering the north end of the present site be disposed of.

3. It appears as tho each township will eventually be able to support a high school of its own and the site committee strongly recommends that at a future date a second site committee be established to explore the possibilities of locating a third school site in Manhattan township.

4. The site committee recommends that the school board proceed with discretion, prudence and haste in whatever direction seems feasible since land values will become more costly and scarce as time passes.

5. The site committee discussed the method by which the acquisition of property should take place. Several suggestions were made:

a) The school board appoint a third party to secure options on various parcels of property without divulging the buyer's name.

b) The school board act for themselves in attempting to secure additional site property.

c) That some arrangement of a lease-purchase plan be explored.

6. The site committee recognizes that there is a close relationship between school planning and community planning and that the two are compatible. Therefore, it recommends that the school board work in close harmony and exert leadership in promoting systematic comprehensive community planning.

7. Lastly, it is recommended that the school board provide leadership to raise the level of appreciation of education in the Lincoln-Way area leading to better understanding of school problems and the development of better schools. The site committee also recognizes the foresightedness of the Lincoln-Way board of education in attempting to develop a valuable long-range study of the physical facility needs of the district.

Members of the site committee are Fred Richards, Manhattan; Oren Link, Lincoln Estates; Paul Schubert, Arbury Hills; Jack Mammell and R. F. DeForest Jr., of Mokena; Carl Schonwiese, New Lenox, and Ralph Dralle, Frankfort.

Future meetings of the L-W board of education will be concerned with solving the problem of meeting the expanding school space needs.

Thieves Get 4 TV Sets At Sangmeister Store

Burglars entered a business establishment and a home at Frankfort last week. They carried off four portable TV sets from the Sangmeister Electric Sales, operated by George C. Sangmeister, the mayor of Frankfort on Kansas St. and in the house burglary, the home of James Bryant, Lincoln highway, near Lincoln Estates, a radio was stolen. Bryant and his wife are both teachers and were away from home when the break-in occurred. It was the second try in two weeks at the Sangmeister establishment.

The television sets, with 19-inch picture tubes, taken at the Sangmeister store were valued at approximately $700. One, a white one, was a Motorola. The other three were Philcos, one black, one beige and one tan in color.

The burglars who carted off the TV sets were brazen thieves, investigators pointed out. They forced entry to the place between 6 and 8 o'clock on Wednesday night, while it was daylight or no darker than dusk.

Mr. Sangmeister had locked up the store at 6 o'clock. When he came back at 8:00 it was to find that the lock on the front door had been forced. This was an all glass door and in gaining entry the thieves broke it and also cracked a window.

Sometime during the night of March 2 someone forced the lock on this same door but apparently was frightened away before moving out any merchandise. The first time it was only necessary to replace the lock. Last week, however, it was necessary to replace the entire door. Investigators are working on a couple of leads they hope will be productive.

Mokena Seeks New Well Site

Trustee Marvin Weitendorf, of the Mokena village board, reported that plans for extending the water system pending future recommendations of engineers and financial experts.

One of the proposals calls for the drilling of a second well. The committee will endeavor to select a site soon, it was said. The proposed well could be located in an area where it would be available for industrial sections, it was said.

Mayor Recovering From Surgery

The condition of W.R. Schusler, Jr., bank official and mayor of Mokena, who underwent surgery for a gall bladder at Christ Community hospital March 17, is reported as progressing satisfactorily.

He experienced a setback last Thursday but recovered from that and on Monday night was reported to be much improved.

Then, too, there's the sporty 15-foot Corvair, so right for so many people (you girls, in particular) that we've never touched an inch of it. And finally, Corvair—still 14½ feet and still too much for any true sports-car lover to say no to.

"We used to have an Olds. But after a test drive, we decided to trade it in on a '64 Ford Country Squire wagon. Our new Ford has plenty of room for ourselves and our four children—yet it's a real cinch to handle and park."

A Descent Into Demagoguery

State Treasurer William J. Scott's campaign for GOP gubernatorial nomination is verging on the hysterical. The candidate himself is engaging in personalities, innuendo and unsupported allegations which, in and of themselves, raise serious questions as to his own qualities. His supporters, who include extremists on the far right, are engaging in slander, mud-slinging and other desperation tactics which, even though they were to succeed in purpose, are splitting the GOP down the middle and jeopardizing the party's November success, who ever may be the nominee.

Unfortunately, Scott's tactics and those of the wrecking crew which has associated itself with him sometimes succeed in primary contests. But they disgust fair-minded Republicans. And they nauseate independents.

No Republican can carry the state of Illinois in November without independent support. The GOP "hard core" strength in Illinois does not exceed 25 per cent of the electorate. The Democrats have a "hard core" of approximately 35 per cent. The independents hold the balance of power in general elections. This has been evidenced many times.

Intelligent voters want issues discussed in an intelligent manner. They wish to know what a candidate for governor intends to do about the state's many problems. Smears, canards and vituperation do not constitute a platform which appeals to the intelligent.

Scott and his campaign managers should examine the November, 1960, election returns. Gov. William Stratton, who had won Republican renomination handily, lost the November election to his Democratic opponent, Otto Kerner, by more than one-half million votes. So great was the stampede of independents to the Democratic gubernatorial nominee that Richard M. Nixon, the GOP's presidential nominee, lost the Illinois electoral vote by a scant margin.

Meanwhile, Sec. of State Charles F. Carpentier, Republican, won re-election that same year by 300,000-plus votes.

Illinois is a swing state. Nominations accomplished by divisive tactics or nominations achieved despite them do not enhance either a nominee's or a party's general election possibilities.

Scott and his cohorts are, to say the least, short-sighted. They are setting the stage for a Republican debacle. Their tactics might win the plaudits of those possessed of the John Birch mentality. They may win the support of those swayed by demagoguery, character assassination, slander and undocumented allegations. But a GOP primary majority represents only a scant percentage of the November vote.

The character of the primary campaign conducted by and for Scott is such that he is forfeiting the confidence of many Republicans and most independents, the very people who supported him in his successful primary contest for state treasurer in April, 1962, and who, augmented by independents in November of the same year, elected him over his Democratic opposition.

In 1962 Scott was regarded as the "new look" in the Illinois Republican Party.

This editorial reprinted through the courtesy of the Chicago Sun-Times in which it appeared March 23, 1964.

The "new look" has turned out to be the same "old look" as Scott, permitting himself to be used as the tool of the extremists, has succumbed to the lure of expediency.

The slanderous attacks being made by Scott and his followers upon Charles H. Percy, Chicago industrialist who is Scott's primary opponent, do not stand fair-minded analysis. They reveal the cynical attitude of those who would corrupt the electoral processes for personal gain or revenge for fancied wrongs. They demonstrate the warped mentality of the anti-intellectuals. They evidence the naivete of those who believe the world of 1964 is the same as the world of 1864. They show that the political poison poured into the Illinois GOP by Big Bill Thompson and Len Small, political buccaneers of the '20s, hasn't entirely dissipated.

Consider, for example, a pamphlet which has widespread currency throughout the state; a pamphlet signed by one Paul Stout, Lombard, Ill., a John Birch Society member skilled in the art of the loaded question, a master of innuendo, and a character assassin of such skill as to entitle him to high rank in a literary affiliate of Cosa Nostra.

Scott hasn't repudiated this pamphlet. Scott hasn't repudiated Stout. The widespread circulation of this pamphlet throughout the state suggests connivance on the part of Scott's headquarters. If there has been no connivance in this vile act, Scott and his managers should make that fact plain by repudiating Stout's pamphlet and the reprehensible employment of his diabolical skills in Scott's behalf.

Stout's pamphlet is a thinly veiled attack on Percy's Americanism, his espousal of the Fair Employment Practices Act and his services in behalf of the United Republican Fund.

The Sun-Times will answer each of Stout's allegations in subsequent editorials. It will also answer each allegation against Percy contained in a similar scurrilous pamphlet signed by former State Sen. Lottie Holman O'Neill, Dr. Harry Mantz, R. Birks and K. Westbye.

Hayes Robertson, Cook County Central Committee chairman, and one of Scott's most active supporters, has a partial responsibility for this pamphlet which will also be commented upon.

The Sun-Times will likewise comment on Scott's own descent into demagoguery. This will be a sad task to undertake. For The Sun-Times supported Scott in his initial entry into state political life. It then regarded him as a young man of great potential for good, both for the Republican Party and more importantly for Illinois.

He has disappointed us. The revelation of his undisciplined ambition was a shock. That, perhaps, might be overlooked. But the revelation of his seeming willingness to stoop to any tactics to accomplish such ambition cannot be overlooked. His "rule or ruin" tactics, his "victory at any price" antics, do not bode well for either himself or the Republican Party in Illinois. We reaffirm our support of Percy, a support which, had we not previously expressed it, would have been forthcoming as a consequence of Scott's subsequently demonstrated inadequacies and questionable tactics.

Defenders. For Suburban Offenders

(CNS) - John S. Boyle, chief judge of the circuit court, Thursday announced that the Cook county public defender will have two attorneys available to represent indigent defendants from suburban Cook county.

The public defender's office previously defended only District 1 (City of Chicago) indigents. Boyle said that the public defender's staff assigned to the suburban area will remain at the defender's main office, so that all prisoners that are lodged in the county jail may be interviewed.

The attorney assigned to the offender will appear in the district court when the case is called for trial, Boyle said.

PONTIAC'S "FULL-SPEED AHEAD" CAMPAIGN

For 3 straight years, Pontiac has placed number 3 in sales nationally and they're going full speed ahead for their 4th year. To have an all-time high in sales this spring, Pontiac Motor Division has planned the greatest contest in its history.

Pontiac Motor Division holds no more than one National Contest per year (none in '63). We won first place in 1960 and again in 1962. There was only one contest winner, and we were the one! Once again we are in competition with some of the largest dealers in Chicago and Illinois. We will go all out to win... give us a chance. There are many people paying the price of a Pontiac and getting a low price car with much less automobile. If you're paying for a Pontiac, be sure you get it. Wouldn't you really rather have a Pontiac?

Our giant new service facility is now under construction on Jefferson and Larkin. This will give Pontiac owners Joliet's most modern service facility. We want to win and we know what it takes to sell an automobile. We have got the best price, highest trade, bank financing, and will soon have the most modern service facility... what else is there?

Warns Against Baby Chicks
And Ducks

"The custom of giving live baby chicks and ducks as an Easter gift may lead to serious illness" warned Dr. Wm.
J. Cassel Jr., Will County
Health Officer.

"Baby chicks and ducks are frequently responsible for an acute intestinal illness in children," said Dr. Cassel. "It is also possible for babies under a year of age to become ill when live chicks and ducks are brought into the home because of indirect contact through older children in the family."

The illness is very much like food poisoning and is caused by a similar organism. Symptoms of the illness usually last for several days and include nausea, vomiting diarrhea, abdominal cramps and high fever.

"Children have no resistance against this disease, so they should not be exposed to the possibility of illness by receiving a baby chick or duck for Easter," concluded Dr. Cassel.

Commonwealth Edison Earnings Show Gain

Commonwealth Edison Company in its annual report issued today announced increased sales and earnings for 1964 and outlined plans for a $675,000,000, five-year plant expansion program.

The report, signed by J. Harris Ward, chairman and president showed that net income in 1963 was $92,934,370, or $2.26 a common share. This compares with a 1962 net income of $88,470,223, equal to $2.16 a common share after providing for dividends on preferred stock. There was no preferred stock outstanding in 1963.

Operating revenues in 1963 totaled $540,630,698, against $520,156,122 in the previous year, an increase of 3.9 per cent.

Provisions for federal, state and local taxes in 1963 were $146,239,040, or 27 cents out of each customer revenue dollar.

Kilowatt-hour sales to ultimate consumers in 1963 totaled 26,375,520,610, compared with 24,739,502,489 kilowatt-hours sold in 1962, an increase of 6.6 per cent.

The company increased its kilowatt-hour sales in each of the three major customer categories. Residential sales were up 7.1 per cent, small commercial and industrial sales increased 5.1 per cent, and large commercial and industrial sales were up 7.2 per cent.

"Business in general," Mr. Ward said, "is expected to continue at a high level in 1964 and we anticipate increases over 1963 in our kilowatt-hour sales, revenues and earnings." Improved earnings on the common stock, according to Mr. Ward, were due principally to greater sales, continued economy in operations and complete redemption of preferred stock in December, 1962.

The increased kilowatt-hour sales, he said, were due in part to greater sales efforts and reduced rates.

"We believe that reduced rates are an important aid to our intensive sales efforts, and we intend to make further reductions as conditions permit," he added.

Mr. Ward said that the utility's $675,000,000 plant expansion program during the next five years marks a sharp increase in new construction expenditures.

The estimates for construction outlays through 1968 are: $125,000,000 for 1964; $135,000,000 for 1965; $130,000,000 for 1966; $140,000,000 for 1967; and $145,000,000 for 1968.

Commonwealth expects to finance the construction program primarily with cash on hand at the end of 1963 and funds provided internally during the period.

The completion of four 560,000-kilowatt generating units will bring the company's net generating capability to 8,659,000 kilowatts in 1968. Two of the units are under construction now at the Joliet Generating Station. One is scheduled for service in 1965, the other in 1966.

The remaining two units are on order for the utility's new Kincaid mine-mouth station. The first Kincaid unit will be in service in 1967 and the second in 1968.

In 1963, a new 510,000 kilowatt unit was completed at the Will County Station. The company's net generating capability at the end of the year was 6,524,000 kilowatts.

HOMER NEWS

BY ELIZABETH ANDERSON

Brandon Kostelny, an eighth grade pupil at 33-C, and Ivette Rodriguez, a sixth grader at Reed school, were among the winners in the sectional contest of the Will County spelling matches Wednesday night and will be among the 22 finalists at the contest on April 4. Fifteen girls and 7 boys, led the 135 contestants in the sectionals.

This will be a busy week for Homer Church people with choir rehearsal Wednesday night, the Missionary meeting at 7 o'clock Thursday, a Maundy Thursday Communion service at 7:30 Thursday evening and the united Good Friday service at Trinity Lutheran church from noon to 3 p.m. Friday.

There will be two worship services at 9:30 and 10:45 on Easter morning, with Sunday School omitted. Pupils attending either church service will be given Sunday school credit for that day.

Rev. Cox will participate in the Sunrise Service at Palos Community Center Easter morning at 7 o'clock and some Homer people will be attending there.

The Homer Men's club will hold its annual card-party at 33-C Grade School Saturday evening, April 4.

The Northwest Homer Fire Auxiliary will hold a bake sale at the Pick-N-Save Store at the Lemont Shopping Plaza, State St., Friday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock, and all day Saturday.

A box-lunch and reception for Louis Bertani was held at Goodings Grove Hall Friday evening. Bertani is a Republican candidate for nomination as state's attorney in the April 14 primary.

Among dates to be kept in mind are the grade school and high school board elections on April 11, the primaries, the Fire Auxiliary luncheon on May 7, and the coming rummage sale sponsored by this group.

The John W. Reifers of Bruce Rd. have returned from a Florida vacation and visit with their son, Jack and family. Mr. and Mrs. Don Aspel and family spent the past weekend with relatives in Wyand.

Mrs. Aspel's sister, Miss Shirley Smith, was a recent visitor in the Aspel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Welter were hosts at the March meeting of the Maple St. Arbor of Gleaners. Plans were made for a youth's Hobby Show for the May meeting, with winners eligible to compete at the State Gleaners' picnic in July.

The board meeting of Lockport area United Church Women will be held in Lemont on April 4. The president of the Missionary Society and one delegate are eligible to attend.

Reports Number Signed For Feed Grain Program

As of March 19, 637 out of some 3,000 farms in Will County had been signed up for participation in the 1964 feed grain program, Roy M. Smith chairman, Will county agricultural stabilization and conservation committee, has announced. County farms eligible to take part in the program total 3110. "Eligible" farms are those which grew one or more of the three feed grains -- corn, grain sorghum, or barley -- during the program's base years 1959 and 1960.

Feed grain acreage signed up for diversion through the program now totals 14643 acres, including 14632 acres of corn, no acres of grain sorghum, and 11 acres of barley. Feed grain base acreages of these participating farms amount to 38,938 acres.

Based on farmer's intentions, as recorded at the ASCS county office, these producers will earn an estimated $560,000 in diversion payments for participating in the feed grain program this year.

Thruout the nation 543,543 farms have been signed up to take part in the program as of Feb. 27. Acreage signed up for diversion totaled 13,728,600 acres, including 10.2 million acres of corn, 2.5 million acres of grain sorghum, and 1.0 million acres of barley.

The chairman points out that the 1964 feed grain program offers farmers an opportunity to continue progress in balancing supplies with estimated needs.

Under the program, a grower who reduces his feed grain acreage (of corn, grain sorghum, and barley) by at least 20 percent of his farm's total base acreage will earn a diversion payment for shifting the acreage from production to a conserving use. He will also qualify for a price support payment on the normal production of the 1964 feed grain crops. Mr. Smith reminds farmers that the program sign-up is now under way at the county office and will extend thru March 27.

"BILL" BARR SPEAKS ON CAMPAIGN ISSUES!

LET'S SUM IT UP!

(This is the final in a series of articles by William G. "Bill" Barr, GOP Candidate for nomination to Congress from the 14th Congressional District.)

"Experience, ability and a basic political and philosophical rapport are the ingredients a voter should seek in evaluating candidates for office."

"Each qualified candidate will outline his experience and his ability. It is in the area of basic political philosophy that the big difference in candidates can be observed."

"Thruout this campaign, I have been talking specific issues. I have answered every question presented positively. It is your obligation as a voter to make a list of each candidate seeking office and to add up the pluses and minuses of that candidate's experience, ability and basic political philosophy."

"Concerning experience, I want to again point out that I am the only candidate who has actually served in Washington, both as a government administrator and as a representative of private business interests. On many occasions, I have testified before Congressional committees."

"Concerning qualifications, I am the only candidate who has a proven record of administrative ability at a national level of government. Thru background and training... thru personal experience, I am certainly qualified to be a capable legislator."

"My stands on the issues have been concise and clear. I favor a permanent tax reduction, coupled with a return to fiscal sanity in federal government. I oppose the evils of big government. I am for local control and local authority. I oppose the concepts of metropolitan government."

"While I have been definitely categorized as a conservative Republican, I favor the word positive. I have offered an alternative in each area of federal subsidy and intervention that I oppose."

deficit can be eliminated thru curtailment of federal urban renewal, area redevelopment, accelerated public works and government subsidy to mass transportation systems.

"Our domestic economy can further benefit by a sharp curtailment of foreign aid. Sooner or later, the American people are going to realize that you can't buy democracy with dollars."

"These discussions have included close scrutiny of such federal programs as urban renewal, public aid to education, medicare and foreign aid."

"I know the problems of the 14th Congressional District... and I know the problems of the United States."

"Thru my association with the National Parking Association, I have visited 600 American cities, studying their economic problems, offering solutions."

"How I plan to remain in contact with the citizens of this district has been outlined. My town hall meeting concept has been widely accepted."

"The manner in which this campaign has been conducted -- aggressive, positive, effective -- has won us many supporters. They believe that it is vital to return the government to Republicans. They believe also that Republicans must be willing to work, and work hard, to win back the White House and the Congress of the United States."

"These are plus factors, that I offer. If you agree that my qualifications are sound... if you agree that I have the experience and ability to serve you effectively in Washington then consider the issues."

"If you agree that this is the type of positive Republicanism that we must have in Washington, then I sincerely seek your support on April 14."

Virginia Kuehl, Of Mokena, Dies; Funeral Today

RESPONSE from the widow of former President John F. Kennedy to their letter of condolence following his assassination, has been received by the Tony Schramm family of 20012 Scott St., Mokena. A note thanking the Schramms for their message of sympathy was received last week in behalf of Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy. The secretary who wrote the note said Mrs. Kennedy was sorry that she was unable to answer them personally but the volume of mail was so tremendous that it was an impossible task for one person to attempt it. With the note was enclosed a card bearing the picture of the late President and the details concerning the funeral arrangements. Such cards were given out to those attending the funeral at Washington.

The girls here are members of the Schramm family and are pupils at St. Mary's school. Left to right are, Judith, 8, Nancy, 11 and Janice, 14. They took the note and card to school for the other youngsters to see. There is another daughter, Mary Ann, a student at Sacred Heart high school, who was not at home when this picture was taken.

Lions Seek Talent For Annual Pancake Project

Members of the Mokena Lions club are giving their respective skills trial runs these days in preparation for their ninth annual pancake day which is coming up Saturday, April 4.

Trinity School for the mentally retarded is to benefit thru the proceeds of the event.

The pancakes—with sausage—will be served in the St. Mary social center, Wolf road, from 6 a.m. to 2 p.m. with tickets selling at $1. Such a ticket entitles the holder to stow away all the cakes and sausage he can eat.

Pancake day calls for a variety of talents. Not only are men needed to keep a supply of batter on hand but cooks are required too, men skilled in handling spatulas and with a quick wrist to flip the cakes; sausage cookers also are in demand, as are men who will keep up the supply of coffee, replenish butter stores and syrup jugs, run errands and—hey, come back here you fellows—and dish washers.

Walter Welsh is chairman of the pancake day committee and reports ticket sales have been encouraging.

"Helping those youngsters at Trinity school should make everyone who buys a ticket feel good," said George Carlisle, president of the Mokena Lions club.

YMCA Camp Cookie Sale On April 11

Saturday, April 11, will be the kickoff day for the YMCA's Triple "Y" day camp cookie sale. At this time, youngsters will have the opportunity to sell cookies and help pay their way to day camp this summer. The cookies will be available for pickup from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on that day.

This opportunity is open to all boys and girls planning to attend Triple "Y" day camp. The camp is available to any child seven (or completing first grade) thru twelve years of age. Prior to selling the YMCA cookies, prospective campers must turn in an application and $5 deposit, which is applied toward the total camp fee. In addition, each child must have the approval of his or her parents before checking out cookies.

According to Henry E. Waschow, camp director, this sale serves a dual purpose. It makes a camping experience available to any youngster in the area and it gives each child a feeling of accomplishment and responsibility through helping himself.

Further information on the cookie sale and Triple "Y" day camp is available by calling 233-7333, 424-8100 or 448-3888.

Grade Pupils Compete In District Arts Contest

Last week-end, Mokena students entered in a district fine arts contest composed of literary, art and music events.

Ten students from the seventh and eighth grades entered the district Literary (speech) contest held on Thursday, March 19 at Kelvin Grove school, Lockport. All ten won first and will compete in the sectional contest to be held in Chenoa on April 4.

Thirteen students entered the art contest held on the same afternoon as the literary contests, but at Taft School in Lockport. Six students received first ratings and seven received a second rating.

Youth Major PTA Topic

Henry Waschow, a representative of the YMCA, and Chester Kupiec, an Orland Park village trustee and active in affairs of the Orland Youth Association, were the two speakers at the March meeting of the Orland Center PTA. The session was conducted in the multi-purpose room at the school with Mrs. La Verne Whitfield presiding.

Waschow pointed out the many activities and programs available thru the YMCA and said that organization was interested in expanding its fields in the area.

Kupiec told of the function of the OYA. It promotes safe and clean activities for the youth of the Orland area, he declared. He reminded parents, however, that they must help with their time as well as their money if the organization is to be a success.

Panel Will Discuss Sex Education Before PTG

The next regular meeting of the Lincoln-Way Parent-Teacher Group will be held Wednesday night, April 1st, in the high school auditorium. Program chairman Jim Brooks mentioned that a special panel featuring five very well known guest speakers will discuss sex education. Dr. Claude Otto of the Hedges Clinic and Dr. Theodore Polley of Joliet will present the views of the medical profession while Rev. James Parker, pastor of the Frankfort Methodist church and Mr. and Mrs. A. D.

Draper of Joliet will present the views of the Protestant and Catholic churches.

Chairman Brooks mentioned that this program promises to be the highlight of the entire year. Last year this same group of panelists presented two different programs to the Lincoln-Way students as a part of the regularly scheduled group guidance program. The student response at that time was most favorable, resulting in this return presentation.

Nominations for the organization's offices for the ensuing year will be presented during the business session by John Porick, chairman of the nominating committee.

Egg Hunt At Mokena On Sunday

The annual Easter Egg hunt sponsored by the Mokena Lions club will be held Sunday afternoon in Community park, weather permitting of course.

The hunt is open to all youngsters from pre-school thru the fifth grade, with a special area being set aside for the preschoolers.

A certain number of the eggs will be inscribed with numerals that call for certain prizes. At one time the prizes were awarded on the number of eggs collected but this practice was halted when it was found that victory went to the largest and strongest of the young hunters.

To have a successful hunt there must be plenty of eggs, it was pointed out, and to this end each member of the Lions club is to bring a dozen hard-boiled, colored eggs to Roy Richardson's store by Saturday. Richardson is again serving as chairman of arrangements.

4 Candidates For Frankfort School Board

Four candidates are running for the three places to be filled on the Frankfort grade school board in the school election April 11.

Three of the four are seeking the two full three-year term places that will be vacated next month by Vernon Hansen and Ralph Nieland. Neither of the incumbents is seeking re-election.

Filing for the full terms are William Bredert, Donald Lorenz, and William R. Smith.

The only candidate for the two-year term is Melvin Eisenbrandt who was appointed to the board when Clifford Woodman moved out of the district. The term has two years to run.

Rehearsal Of "Oklahoma!" In Full Swing At CSHS

A Saturday or Sunday matinee, the first in Sandburg's history, will highlight the all-school production of Oklahoma! in April, Miss Sarah Stephens announced recently.

Now in full-scale rehearsal, the production will involve some 100 students from the dramatics club, and the music and speech departments. Performances are scheduled for April 23, 24, and 25.

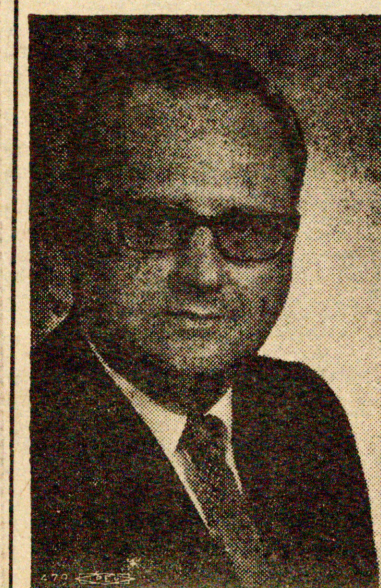

The cast includes Donna Mc Neil as Laurey, Pat Mojden as Aunt Eller, Beth Hanson as Ado Annie, Ken Grigas as Jud Fry, Robert Miller as Curley, Albert Loebe as Al Hakim and Steve Spencer as Will Parker.

General director for the production is Don Steinhart. Assisting him are Miss Stephens, technical director; Miss Karen Lundgren, choreography; Gene Biggs, vocal music director; and Charles Rullman, instrumental music director.

Others in the cast include Zay Smith, Michelle Schounnot, Ella Loebe, Jennie Slack, Liza Weigel, Gene Schroeder, Doug Robinson, Mike Manning, John Smith, Al Toman, and George Fuller. Miss Stephens said a "full retinue of singers and dancers" will complement the dramatic performance of the cast.

Oklahoma! (Incidentally, the exclamation point is a part of the registered title and must always appear in print) was first presented in New York on April 1, 1943. The first effort of the team of Rodgers and Hammerstein, it has become one of America's most loved musicals and holds the record for the longest consecutive run on Broadway.

Dear Sir:

I am opposed to the recently announced proposal by the Rock Island Lines to increase commuter fares for all riders and to decrease service for riders using local trains from Blue Island.

It is my contention that these acts will result in further declines in both riders and revenue and ultimately lead to the dissolution of commuter service for all present patrons of the Rock Island.

I have been told that the federal government can do nothing in our behalf, but that the Illinois commerce commission will have jurisdiction in this matter.

Therefore, anyone wishing to protest the fare increase and cut in service may do so by writing to: James W. Karber, Chairman, Illinois Commerce Commission, 160 N. LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill.

Thank you.
Cordially,
Edwin A. Bogusz

The Working Classes

SUMMER TIME WORK FOR HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE STUDENTS

Very shortly thousands of high school and college students will be looking for summer work. While it appears that there will be a brisk demand for this type of help, the supply will no doubt be far in excess of the demand. So, if you plan to work during your summer vacation and do not already have a firm commitment for this summer job, there are a few rules that we suggest you follow.

1. If you worked last summer check with your previous employer to find out if your services can be used again this summer.

2. Presuming that there will be an over supply of boys and girls for these summer jobs, then quite likely those that get there first and make the best impressions, will get the job.

3. The first thing you should do before you start out looking for this summer job is to sit down and make up a one page resume, giving your name, address, telephone number, height and weight. Then list your education to date and your average grades. If you have had previous work experience list this in detail, showing dates you were employed, name of company and salary. If you type, list speed and type of machine. If you take shorthand indicate speed. Indicate all machines (office or factory) that you have operated or may be familiar with. Be sure to indicate when you will be available for work, (from June 1 to Sept. 1)

You should also register with your local employment offices. There is no charge to you for this registration, and quite likely their counseling with you will prove helpful in finding summer work.

My advice to all of you that are going to be looking for summer work is this: Don't set your sights too high, salary or job wise, most summer time jobs don't feature much romance and most companies are not interested in hiring those looking for glamour jobs.

Even though you are going for a blue collar job be dressed in your best Sunday clothes when you go on the first interviews. Boys should wear a dark suit with tie (no white socks) Girls should wear conservative dress, with dress shoes, (no loafers, slacks, sweaters and skirts).
